
Unit – 1 : Session – 11 : SLO – 2 | Classification of System Calls — Match

I. Answers

1. Used to start, end, or abort a process -> PROCESS CONTROL (create, terminate, load, execute).
2. Involves opening, reading, writing, and closing files -> FILE MANIPULATION (open, read, write, close).
3. Deals with request and release of hardware like printers or drives -> DEVICE MANIPULATION
4. (request device, release device, read, write, ioctl).
5. Includes getting system date, time, or system info -> INFORMATION MAINTENANCE (getpid, time, attributes).
6. Used when two processes exchange data or messages -> COMMUNICATION (pipe, shmget, send/receive, sockets).
7. Used to set permissions and access rights -> PROTECTION (chmod, umask, chown, access control).